Leadership Mastermind

What is the biggest challenge that your business faces now?

- Are the leaders in your business performing to your expectations?
- Are the leaders in your business developing and improving themselves in a clear, designed way?
- Are the leaders in your business developing other, new, leaders?

If the answer to these critical questions is no, the Leadership Mastermind program will be a significant boost to your professional development agenda.

Marcher Leadership has partnered with the John Maxwell Team, a worldwide leadership organisation whose vision is to improve the standard and knowledge of leadership in all areas, corporate, government, church, not-for-profit, sport, education, in fact everywhere. Using the knowledge and wisdom of John C Maxwell's unparalleled knowledge and experience and using some of the 60 plus books John has written, Marcher Leadership can now bring you the Leadership Mastermind.

Leadership Mastermind is a high impact, low investment program designed specifically to get those people in leadership positions engaged in, and actively thinking about leadership, both from a general perspective, and from their individual workplace perspective. It is a facilitated leadership program that will raise knowledge and awareness of leadership in a workplace setting. It will get participants “doing” leadership in their workplace in a more effective way.

Leadership Mastermind is:

- Conducted over a 6-8-week time, depending on the specific program selected
- Designed for a maximum of 10 participants, to ensure engagement and learning is achieved.
- Perfect for the development of both existing and emerging leaders.
- Based on the principles espoused by John C Maxwell, the world's most successful leadership expert and author
- Conducted once a week for only 90 minutes per session, giving participants the opportunity to reflect on the learnings from the program, and to apply knowledge in the workplace.
- At only $697 per person, this is the best value leadership program available.
